

Parking in the Visitor Parking Lot

The visitor parking lot, located in Clark Park is controlled by the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia. The parking lot is strictly reserved for visitors to the University. Accordingly, no students, staff or faculty parking is permitted. Part-time faculty who teach courses between the hours of 10:00am and 4:00pm are permitted to park in this lot provided they have obtained a temporary parking permit and provided that a parking space exists. However, a temporary parking permit does not guarantee a parking space
