

COMPARATIVES

Mark each correct sentence with a “C”. If the sentence is unclear or ungrammatical, correct it.

1. This sandwich is more better than that one.

2. Since there are only two reasons for an excused absence, we should decide which one is best.

3. Rachel fell off her bike and is lucky she wasn't hurt more worse.

4. This is the worst winter we've had in years.

5. I'm doing even worse in math this year than last.

6. She looks much better.

7. She is the worst writer in the class.

8. Jim is the better runner on the team.

9. These are the goodest cookies I've ever tasted.

10. Your tennis is better than mine, but Jeff's is the best.

11. We read Jill's play, Richard's poem, and Dave's story; however, Dave's was the best.

12. I went to California, Arizona, and Colorado last summer, and I thought Arizona was better.

13. Fran likes the Beatles better than the Beach Boys.
